Date	12-13 April	14 April	15 April	16 April	16 April
Location	Boston	Beijing	Beijing	Guangzhou	Guangzhou
Morning Schedule	Depart from Boston on Wednesday evening and arrive in the ancient capital of Beijing on Thursday evening local time.	Shake off the jetlag with some Tai Chi morning exercises amongst the locals in the beautiful park grounds of the Temple of Heaven before an early lunch of authentic Beijing noodles.	Climb the Great Wall of China at Mutianyu, a beautifully restored section dating back to the 5th Century, marvelling both at its impressive engineering feat and spectacular natural backdrop.	Get a flavor for China's colonial past on Shamian Island , a former foreign concession after the Opium Wars, before exploring Guangzhou's largest open air market.	Split into groups for immersive school visits at 4 key public high schools in Guangzhou, where you'll meet with students, teachers and administrators.
Afternoon schedule	Recall that has been China's capital for over 700 years, spanning three imperial dynasties until the founding of the PRC in 1949.	Visit Tiananmen Square , largest public square in the world and home to many major historical events, and the Forbidden City , home to all Chinese Emperors since 1420.	Spend the afternoon delving into the heart of Beijing's contemporary art scene at the 798 Art District , comprising a complex of 50-year old decommissioned military factories.	After a Dim Sum Lunch , enjoy free time exploring the popular Beijing Road Pedestrian Street before watching the sunset atop Canton Tower , the second tallest in the world.	Reunite for lunch at the Guangzhou Education Bureau to learn about China's latest education reforms and finish the day at the fascinating Chen Clan Ancestral Hall .

Morning	Pay an early morning visit to Chengdu's most famous residents at the Giant Panda Panda Base before transferring to Anlong Village for an authentic Chinese country style lunch.	Split into groups for immersive school visits at 4 key public high schools in Chengdu, where you'll meet and have lunch with students, teachers and administrators.	Take an optional day trip to Leshan. Built during the 8th century at the confluence of two rivers, the Leshan Giant Buddha was the life's work of a Tang dynasty monk called Haitong.	Attend the first annual China-US High School Exchange Summit at Beijing's most prestigious high school to learn about best practices in student exchange and meet potential partners.	Depart Beijing at lunchtime and arrive in Boston on Sunday afternoon local time.
Afternoon	Spend the afternoon learning about the work Anlong is doing as a model ecovillage project to use ecological farming systems to reduce water pollution in Chengdu.	Reunite at Wuhou Temple , dedicated to the semi-historical hero of a Chinese literary epic from the 12th century. Then head next door to the ancient Jinli Street for snacks, arts & crafts.	A work of truly massive proportions, the Buddha stands (or rather, sits) at 233 feet tall, making it the world's largest pre-modern statue. Teachers can also opt for a free day to explore Chengdu at your own pace.	Spend your last afternoon exploring "Old Beijing" with a tour of the city's ancient Hutong alleys and a boat ride on Houhai Lake . Teachers can also opt for a free afternoon for shopping or other activities.
